All matches through the first six rounds of the Connecticut Chess League tournament have now been accounted for, with the exception of the Bridgeport-Meriden contest. After several attempts to play the third round New Britain-Norwalk match, Captain Taves of the Norwalk team advises that, as he has been unable to get the team together on the dates named, he believes it best to let the match go as a forfeit rather than hold up the schedule any longer. The standing at the end of the first half of the season shows a difference of one game only between the first seven teams in the race:

	won	lost
Hartford Bishops	4½	½
Deep River	5	1
New Britain	5	1
Bridgeport	4	1
Hartford Knights	4	1
Travelers	3½	1½
Yale Club	3½	1½
West Haven	2	4
Norwalk	1½	4½
New London	1	4
Waterbury YMCA	1	5
New Haven YMCA	0	5
Meriden	0	5

The results of sixth round matches played last Saturday:

New London vs. Yale Club
Dimock	0	Ryder	1
Van Atta	0	Eron	1
Steinhaus	0	Wimsatt	1
Ames	0	Stacy	1
Richards	0	Baxter	1
	0		5

Waterbury YMCA vs. West Haven
Lewis	0	Chatfield	1
Cushman	1	Brill	0
Cornell	0	Davey	1
Norling	1	Nordstrom	0
Luke	0	Welland	1
	3		3

The seventh round is being taken care of this week, just ended, and matches played before Saturday evening are:

Htfd. Bishops vs. New Haven Y.
Thomas	.....½	Suraci	.....½
Powers	.....1	Chatfield	.....0
Bjorkman	.....1	Campbell	.....0
Thaler	.....1	Mann	.....0
Pease	.....1	Whiting	.....0
	4½		½

Six rounds in the B division of the league have also been completed, with the exception of three matches involving the Waterbury Chess Club, who have been handicapped by some of their players having to work on the nights scheduled for play. The results of matches played since last Sunday:

Travelers vs. Deep River.
Byron	½	Rintoul	½
MacKean	½	Sax	½
Taylor	0	Reinsch	1
Woods	0	Webb	1
Campbell	½	Lutz	½
	1½		3½

New Britain vs. Bristol.
Roman	0	Bellmar	1
Grybocki	1	Burroughs	0
MacNamara	0	Hanna	1
Anderson	1	Wilson	0
Woscyna	0	Michelsen	1
	2		3

The seventh round in the B division, to be played this coming week, has matches on Friday, Bristol at Waterbury, and on Saturday, New Britain at Deep River and Hartford at Travelers.

Game Selection.

Our game this week shows a quick rally by white in the middle game, securing the advantage of an exchange, from which point the game was pressed to its conclusion.

Chess Club President Accepts Third Term

Edmund Roman was reelected president of the New Britain and Falcon chess club for the third consecutive term at the annual meeting last night at the Falcon hall.

Other officers were elected as follows: vice president, Walde-mar Massman; secretary-treasurer, B. A. Gryboski, reelected for the ninth term; assistant, Jacob Koval; delegate to the Connecticut Chess league, Robert Bengston; team captain and librarian, A. G. Gryboski and ladder committee, Alan T. Burr, J. Sinkewicz and John Zyla.

The club was notified by Secretary Gryboski that the state league will be divided into two sections, with New Britain, Bristol, Hartford and the Travelers teams comprising one and teams in the southern part of the state the other. Although New Britain will not actively participate in the tournament this season it will play a series of informal matches against teams in this area.
